

 Herman Miller

Eames® Lounge Chair and Ottoman

ENDURING CHARACTER

Some things make a mark and never fade. That's the case with the Eames lounge chair and ottoman. Perhaps this is because every chair made since 1956 carries on the spirit of the first one—a present from Charles and Ray Eames to their friend Billy Wilder, the Academy Award-winning film director. Perhaps it's because they gave the chair the welcoming, “warm, receptive look of a well-used first baseman's mitt.” Or maybe it's because they used production techniques that join technology and hand craftsmanship. Whatever the reasons, in homes, executive suites, and corporate lobbies, the lounge chair and ottoman endure.

Charles and Ray Eames

QUALITY DETAILS

Charles Eames appeared on the Today Show with the lounge chair the week it was introduced. Stardom ensued. Yet, as popular as it's become, the lounge chair remains grounded in the details that continue to distinguish it.

Seven-ply cherry or walnut veneer shells with leather upholstery.

Six-inch-thick urethane foam cushions.

Swivel mechanism built into the base.

Die-cast aluminum back braces, base, and ottoman base painted black with bright polished aluminum trim.

Natural rubber shock mounts.

Adjustable stainless steel glides.

Eames Lounge Chair and Ottoman

WARRANTY

The Eames lounge chair and ottoman are covered by the Herman Miller Warranty for three years.

For more information about our products and services or to see a list of dealers, please visit us at www.HermanMiller.com or call (800) 851 1196.

© 2004 Herman Miller, Inc. Zeeland, Michigan Printed in U.S.A. on recycled paper. O.MS2320-59

®  Herman Miller and Eames are among the registered trademarks of Herman Miller, Inc.

® The configuration of the Eames lounge chair is registered in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.